This Wasn't Supposed To Be Love: A Erotica Love Story

Synopsis

They say opposites attract. That turns out to be true when it comes to Harleigh and Phor. What started off as just friends with benefits turns into more when someone gets their feelings involved. Harleigh wasn't looking for love when she met Phor. It was just supposed to be a one night stand but Phor had different plans. What happens when Phor can't seem to get his feelings under control? Is there really a difference between lust and love? What if it was never supposed to be love in the first place? What do you do when your mind is telling you one thing but your heart is saying something else? Follow Harleigh and Phor on their journey, that has both of them feeling like. This wasn't supposed to be love.

Customer Reviews

This is good but there were a few things that I could have done without. For example having the entire songs written in the book was a bit much and I felt that the time jumps were not realistic. Over all is what a good read. Will probably get the next one.

Team Meechie... That is all!!! I enjoyed this book. I love the fact that it expressed that love doesn't have a time limit. Phor was making me need in the beginning until I understood that he just don't know how to take falling in love! Harleigh is a survivor and courageous for giving love another try. Can't wait until part two. Hopefully Ronnie IS dead! Great Job Tori D, you never disappoint!
