Belgrade In Your Hands: All You Need For Visiting Belgrade In One Guide

Synopsis

This is the third edition of the Komshe travel guidebook to Serbia's capital, Belgrade, written and published by travel specialists from eastern Europe. This is a definitive guide to this amazing and vibrant city. In a striking position with intriguing history, varied architecture, long summers and great nightlife, Belgrade is a fascinating place to visit. The Belgrade in Your Hands Guide provides you with easy to follow instructions of how to get around the city and discover its secrets. Written by a native Belgrader, it will give you insight into all the prominent and lesser known sights with detailed, in-depth coverage of the town's history, architecture, cuisine and customs, illustrated by more than 400 colour photographs and maps. The practical information section includes a full list and description of hotels, restaurants, daytrips, hints for shopping, going out and much more.
