Customer Reviews

I have been happy with the series and am so glad a new book is out. This book is a great addition to the story. I hope we get more books soon.

Volume 38 has been released, finally, and it doesn't disappoint! Let's hope we won't have to wait as long for the release of volume 39!

Great volume and glad it's out of hiatus!

Finally. 5 years later. Not much happened in this volume. Rick comes face to face with the new Griffith. That is really about it.

The majority of this volume follows Rickert, as he and Erica travel to meet Griffith. When Rickert finally does see Griffith, he realizes that this is an entirely different person than the leader he followed years before. Solid volume, but after waiting so long to see where Guts' journey will take him but only have him in a handful of pages (Practically being a cameo) and the only thing he really does is get off the boat, which is disappointing. There's some development for Rickert here and some characters make a reappearance, like the group of women that took in Casca during the Conviction Arc and Silat (He may have been in a couple volumes before, but I don't remember). Being Berserk, there are some cool action sequences and the art is great as always. Definitely pick this up, but don't expect much out of Guts this volume. 4 out of 5

The story continues! If you've been following Berserk all these DECADES, then no doubt that you'll already be picking this up. Great volume with some of the best art Miura has ever drawn. Fantastic city-scapes with Falconia that makes you pause and search for all the details. And yes, Guts and friends FINALLY get off the boat. Can't wait for the next volume!

Can't wait for volume 39 in 3 more years. 10/10

Finally we get Berserk back and didn't disappoint. Great story and artwork. The only thing that bugs me, is that I have every book nicely placed on a bookshelf, and this book the volume number is out of place. Throws things a little off. But not enough to drop a star. Now the long wait for 39 begins.
