Customer Reviews

Surprises abound in Grandma and Me, a lift-the-flap board book by Karen Katz. Someone special is at the door. Who could it be? A big blue door on the opposite page opens to reveal It's Grandma! But there's more in store: lively pastels show a teddy bear in her suitcase and cookies baking in the oven. Copyright 2002 Cahners Business Information, Inc.

Karen Katz has written and illustrated more than fifty picture books and novelty books including the bestselling Where Is Baby's Belly Button? After graduating from the Tyler School of Art in Philadelphia, she attended the Yale Graduate School of Art and Architecture where she became interested in folk art, Indian miniatures, Shaker art, and Mexican art. My grandson loves these books. So colorful and easy to read.

Cute book, good for a quick read with the 9 month old

My toddler has loved his Karen Katz books for months. This one is right on par with the others... if you're unfamiliar with these marvelous books, they're perfect for babies and tots that are starting to explore books on their own. The colors are vivid, the lift-up pages are challenging but not TOO difficult and my son will sit with a Karen Katz book for 20 minutes, "reading" the pages and flipping the tabs... other lift-the-flap books tend to be too easy (boring) or impossible to open. These flaps are large (usually page-sized) and thus easy to grasp, but still require thinking and precision for learning hands to open them. The vivid colors make these books stand out from the crowd and keep busy toddlers' attention. In "Grandma and Me", your young reader will enjoy a visit from Grandma through the eyes of one adorably excited granddaughter. "Grandma's at the door! Guess what she brought? We love Grandma!" -- that's the theme and feel of the book. If your toddler loves his/her grandma then they will love this book just as much.

Good times

Great book! Written as from a granddaughter to her grandmother. Just perfect.

I love Karen Katz books, but more importantly my daughter loves them. She is 15 months old and she loves lifting the flaps while the story is read to her. The colors and pictures capture her attention. The size of the font is perfect, large enough for her to see while I point to words.

Bought that book for my special "niece" as a birthday present! I know she will love the book! It's cute :)

My granddaughter loves the book.
