A Stockholm Interlude: A Guide To The Usual & Unusual

Synopsis

Informed by on-the-ground research, Herb Lester's handy, folded guides uncover what makes a city special - its most distinctive shops, restaurants, cafÃ©s, bars, museums and galleries, whether unmissable old favourites, exciting new arrivals or overlooked treasures. Each entry comes with its own brief description, and a basic map helps the reader get their bearings and make plans.There are 36 entries in the guide to the Swedish capital, incorporating our usual range of interests: good food and coffee, cultural pursuits and shops. There's Biologika Museet, a 19th-century natural history museum of staggering strangeness, rainwear from Stutterheim, salty caramel from PÃ¤rlans Konfektyr and intimate eating at Bakfickan.Printed on a single sheet of 100% recycled paper, these light, portable guides are an ideal travelling companion.

Herb Lester Associates publish guides for tourists and locals: witty, pretty, curious and opinionated. We research, write, print and distribute maps and guides to the world's great cities. We seek out the well-used and much-loved, and enjoy the extraordinary as well as the everyday. Old bookshops and new coffee shops, park benches and dive bars, hat shops and haberdashers: this is the world according to Herb Lester.

The map looks cool and most of the recommendations I visited were good (nothing like a WOW!), but I was not impressed that the locations on the actual map are "around that area"...you cannot actually use the map for navigation! I had to use the map from my other guidebook along with the map. To be honest, given it is just a big piece of paper, the price seems high.

This should not be called a 'map'. It's useless - simply a list of a few places to visit - probably compiled in an afternoon by the authors.
