Customer Reviews

did not realize it was a short story but i didn't like it at all. I usually like all of James p. books and feel even though he did not write them any more he chose a book he would like or he wouldn't put his name on it and as far as this one, NOT GOOD

This particular book held my interest right up to the very end. I am partial to books that are entertaining. I found that this book had some interesting twists that made an easy read worthwhile.

This book had mystery , romance and the ending was a surprise. James Patterson is definitely one of the best authors out there. Nothing gory, just a nice little mystery.

Good, simple, fast read For sure not Patterson's usual quality or style. Good airplane book. However, not one that will be discussed afterward. Quickly forgotten.

This one had an unreal plotline. You couldn't get ahead of it. The authors kept you on the edge of your seat through the whole book.

This is another great book from a Patterson. Takes life guarding to a new level. It's an enjoyable read for everyone.

An exciting action packed story with some violence and surprises as well as romance and very suspenseful story with a happy ending!

An interesting and fun read. Some mystery, some romance and much living. A different concept, but I enjoyed it.
