

The book was found

Frida & Diego: Art, Love, Life

Synopsis

Nontraditional, controversial, rebellious, and politically volatile, the Mexican artists Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera are remembered for their provocative paintings as well as for their deep love for each other. Their marriage was one of the most tumultuous and infamous in historyâ "filled with passion, pain, betrayal, revolution, and, above all, art that helped define the twentieth century. Catherine Reef's inspiring and insightful dual biography features numerous archival photos and full-color reproductions of both artists' work. Endnotes, bibliography, timeline.

Book Information

Lexile Measure: 1080 (What's this?)

Hardcover: 176 pages

Publisher: Clarion Books (2014)

Language: English

ISBN-10: 0547821840

ISBN-13: 978-0547821849

Product Dimensions: 8 x 0.7 x 10 inches

Shipping Weight: 1.8 pounds (View shipping rates and policies)

Average Customer Review: 4.5 out of 5 stars 34 customer reviews

Best Sellers Rank: #192,993 in Books (See Top 100 in Books) #1 inÂ Books > Teens > Social Issues > Family > Marriage & Divorce #2 inÂ Books > Teens > Art, Music & Photography > Art > Painting #3 inÂ Books > Teens > Art, Music & Photography > Art > History

Age Range: 12 and up

Grade Level: 7 and up

Customer Reviews

Gr 7 Upâ "The lives of Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo were marked by exceptional artistic talent, political fervor, and an all-consuming passion for each other that even outlasted their two marriages. Private and professional heartbreak and an idiosyncratic outlook on life and the world influenced the pair's intensely personal paintings. Readers will learn much about the artists in this dual biography, including information on their numerous love affairs. Still, every relationship clarified for the couple that they couldn't really exist or produce art without the other. Superb examples of Rivera's and Kahlo's paintings are reproduced in glorious full color, replete with rich Mexican-folkloric and earth tones, and the work is filled with excellently reproduced contemporary photos that place events in historical and personal context. Striking use of color elsewhere, as on chapter-opening and back-matter pages, also figure into the handsome design. A well-rounded treatment of two giants of 20th-century art, this volume tracks the separate and combined trajectories of its subjects' lives and careers and allows for comparisons and contrasts. It is highly recommended for public and school libraries and will be useful for units on modern and Latino art and for studies of women artists.â "Carol Goldman, Queens Library, NY

*Starred Review* Reef profiles the lives, accomplishments, and relationship of the two most recognizable figures in Mexican art: Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera. The story opens in 1922, with Rivera painting a mural in Mexico Cityâ ™s National Preparatory School. Kahlo, a mischievous student before the near-fatal traffic accident that would leave her in pain for most of her life, watched the muralist work for hours. Shifting back in time, the story tells of each figureâ ™s childhood, youth, and development as an artist, giving particular attention to Riveraâ ™s years spent training in Europe and Kahloâ ™s devotion to painting despite significant health problems. After their first marriage in 1929 (they would divorce in 1939, then remarry in 1940), the stories of their lives are intertwined in a complex, braided narrative, woven with colorful strands of their art, their politics, their romantic liaisons with others, and their intense, complicated relationship. Along the way, Reef points out each individualâ ™s artistic development and unique qualities as a painter. Archival photos and color reproductions of artworks further enhance the narrative. Writing a dual biography is challenging, but in this case, the portrayal of each person would seem incomplete without an understanding of the other. A handsome biography that is both engaging and enlightening. Grades 7-10. --Carolyn Phelan

Its good if you want to read something more biographical about Frida. I was hoping for more insight on her thoughts and emotions but over all its very well writes and there a plenty of photos.

This is an easy read - in fact I read the entire book in one evening. It gave me a bit more insight to the relationship between Frida and Diego and how that relationship impacted her art and her life.

I was more than pleased with this book. It was a gift for my sister who loves Diego Rivera and Frida Kalo art, I am sure she will love it.

My daughter loved it

LOVE this book and have learned so much more about Diego and Frida. What a love story and what interesting lives.

A beautiful book about two fascinating artists that is easy to read (it's perfecto for middle schoolers and/or teens) and visually stunning.

It's good. Lots of great photographs. But it is more of a picture book than I was expecting. A great book for teenagers maybe but it wasn't quite what I was expecting.

A moving and fascinating look at the love shared between two wonderful artists.

Download to continue reading...

Frida & Diego: Art, Love, Life For the Love of Frida 2018 Wall Calendar: Art and Words Inspired by Frida Kahlo For the Love of Frida 2017 Wall Calendar: Art and Words Inspired by Frida Kahlo Frida's Fiestas: Recipes and Reminiscences of Life with Frida Kahlo Frida: A Biography of Frida Kahlo Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera: From the Jacques and Natasha Gelman Collection San Diego Thomas Guide (Thomas Guide San Diego County, Ca Street Guide) Streetwise San Diego Map - Laminated City Center Street Map of San Diego, California - Folding pocket size travel map with trolley lines Art Ed Books and Kit: Frida Kahlo (Art Ed Book and Kits) MarÃ-a Izquierdo and Frida Kahlo: Challenging Visions in Modern Mexican Art (Latin American and Caribbean Arts and Culture Publication In) Frida Kahlo: The Artist who Painted Herself (Smart About Art) Frida Kahlo (Eye on Art) Aloha: Love, Suite Love/Fixed by Love/Game of Love/It All Adds Up to Love (Inspirational Romance Collection) Frida: Viva La Vida! Long Live Life! Frida Kahlo: Her Life in Paintings (Latino Biography Library) Diego: Bigger Than Life The Diary of Frida Kahlo: An Intimate Self-Portrait Frida Kahlo: The Paintings Six Frida Kahlo Cards (Dover Postcards) Who Was Frida Kahlo?

Contact Us

DMCA

Privacy

FAQ & Help