Periya Puranam: A Tamil Classic On The Great Saiva Saints Of South India (English Translation)

Synopsis

The Tamil devotional classic Periya Puranam, or Great Purana, is the saga of the sixty-three Nayanmars, or servitors, of the Lord. Compiled during the 12th century by Sekkizhaar, this poetic account of the legendary lives portrayed here reminds us that saints appear to us from all walks of life. These Nyanmars are men and women of all ages, and range from tribal hunters to emperors of vast domains. Caste and community, wealth and status do not count with them, as they do not count with God. The trials and tribulations that the saints cheerfully undergo and the sacrifices they make are inspirational. To read their stories is to inhale the air of blessedness. This major text of Saiva Siddhanta has been translated and condensed from the Tamil by the eminent Saivite scholar, G. Vanmikanathan.

This book is published by Ramakrishna Mission, a reputed leader in Indian religious book arena. Peria Puranam is a Tamil classic and this is a translated version, chronicling the story of 63 Great Saints of Shiva tradition called Saivaites. Hard bound book, and for any lover of peace/reading into Hinduism and meditative practices, this is an awesome book. It has secured a place in my library for reading in casual times as well as serious contemplative times. I have several books from the same publisher and I am not disappointed ever.

The original content is a great eye opener. The translation maintains the same devotion and respect and helps us feel the same Wonderful!!!

Probably the most important Tamil purana, Im glad it has been translated and is still in print.

This is the story of the 63 Caivite Nazhanmars of Tamil Nadu, translated from Tamil to English. This dwells extensively on their different natures and different relationships to Lord Shiva, though their underlying characteristic was love of God. I would recommend this book for all Tamil religious people, who can understand English, who are devotees of Lord Shiva.

I have read this book. And I will recommend this to all, young and old to have a feel for the culture and tradition of Tamil Nadu. Would love to read this book in tamil.
