Decent B&D porn, not Tolstoy but ok for the genre

i put my kindle down for 2 weeks after reading the first volume in this collection. it is not for me but may be for some... do not expect there to be any sort of love story... expect women to be defiled unwillingly and expect it to be "extreme dark" as indicated. i will not be putting the rest of this in my head...

Many of these stories are disturbing, in large part because of the excellent writing and the attention to detail. J.D. Cirque wields a dark and twisted pen, and she is endlessly inventive in language, in describing the ways in which a body can be tested to its limits, without resorting to clichés. These stories are rife with rich and varied events, macabre and creepastic scene setting, and detailed accounts of the use of each of the cruel instruments. Squeamish? Take the authors' warning seriously. Don't read if you're disturbed by the dark side, although the main characters mostly enjoyed what happened to them.

The start of the stories was ok.. but just seemed to lose steam (figuratively and literally) for me, Just could not get into the situations as much as I had hoped. At least it was free... so it is what it is..
