Synopsis

The Volume one of the Commentary on the Yoga-Sutras of Patanjali (samadhi-pada) was published in 1984 and is available from the Himalayan International Institute of Yoga Science and Philosophy, Route I, Box 400, Honesdale, PA 18431, USA. It was highly acclaimed as a work of rare authenticity, based on thirteen Sanskrit commentaries, synthesized and studied in the light of the oral tradition and direct personal experience in the master-disciple lineage of the yogis. The author is of the opinion that without such personal experience much of the terminology of the Yoga-sutras would remain obscure and any explanation of purely scholastic grounds would be incomplete. The value of the present volume on the Sadhana-pada is further enhanced by adding the study of even more published Sanskrit commentaries as well as unpublished manuscripts. Seven lengthy appendices add to the value of the work as the material presented in these appendices can be further researched and enhanced to form into independent theses. The author makes certain that the works of the previous commentators be examined in the light of how the Sutras are taught in the Himalayan caves among those who practice the various methods and are initiated into them.

Respect and devotion,Is not a book,It's a life lesson,A Journey with lightA real realised Adept gift

This is a text by a master of the subject matter. Awesome!!

Swami Veda Bharati is one of the top living experts on the Yoga Sutras and Sanskrit texts in general. Traditional commentary has to answer the comments of all previous commentators, clear back to the original; so while devoting so many pages to a single pada may seem ponderous to some, the discerning reader will take what s/he wishes while appreciating the scholarship that went into the book. The publisher was unfortunately a bit careless with spellcheck, but the work stands out nonetheless.
