Customer Reviews

Taking a plunge to any business is risky and therefore it needs careful planning on how to market your products. For products that you sold online, it's also our concern on how this product should reach the right audience and buyer. Etsy is a great online website where artisans can sell their pieces. Since you are carefully placing your product in the market then you got to have a reliable website to help you promote your product. This book give us the step by step process on how to start your online website, You can never go wrong in starting your online store by simply following the book. I also like it that the book has given us some good insights and advise when you are starting an online business. This is a must-read for those opening an online store. Happy selling and good luck!

Very useful step-by-step beginner's guide, just like title of the book suggests. If you're thinking about possibly opening up your own Etsy store and want to learn how, this is a good place to start. Outlines and explains what to do, in an easy to understand way. However, I deducted a star because, in my personal and humble opinion, the author should pay more attention to editing and proof-reading the book. For example, "While the Etsy concept is pretty easy, it does not mean that creating a shop there will automatically result in filling up a bank account".

Got a lot of stuff laying around the house? Or maybe you are crafting your own items and would like to market them but don't know where to start. Wanna sell it online? Author Sarah Moore has assembled all the information you need to be successful at opening your own Etsy store! This book is fully illustrated and it lists each step needed in beginning to sell merchandise on one of the biggest online retailers in the world. A great book to own!

Etsy is a new platform where one can post and sell products like crafts, art works and etc. This book gives the total information on how to be able to do it the best way and earn cash out of it. Our talent and skills is the best asset we have in order to compete with other people since today's generation is very much competitive in terms of skills and personality. This book will not just build us our online store but encourage us to express our ideas into something that is worth living for.

This has some good tips on getting started with ETSY

I was expecting the book to go into more detail, but the chapters were short and the book lacked details. Disappointed....I was expecting more. Wouldn't recommend.

Starting an online business without having your own website is difficult. Here in this book, ETSY offers the site to everyone who wants to start selling their items online. The advantage of posting it online is also explained. Clearly inform the readers that you need to read their website guidelines first before registering. It also includes information on what are the things every first time businessman should consider before opening the business. A list of principles and strategies to have a successful online shop is also included and some tactics and situation that you need to avoid. The book is a good guide to open a business especially online store.
