VROOOOOM! Who is riding up to the Bailey City Pool? It's the new lifeguard. But why is she dressed the way she is? And why is she taking all of their treasures?

This is a quick read that my son and I read together. He has enjoyed a few of the Bailey School Kids books, however this won wasn't one of them. I didn't feel that this book sends the "right" message. Spoiler....An adult taking/stealing the kids toys from them to donate to charity. Why not have the adult teach kids to go through their old toys and donate to charity. Was a disappointment and will be donating the book.

Spelling mistake - video was printed as videoIncorrect narration. First they say Liza was the only kid outside pool. Next paragraph they mention Eddie pushes her way past Liza and jumps into the pool.Second mistake in narration. It is mentioned molly said something which was not ever said in the book..My 6 year old daughter could point it out while I read the book to her.Total waste of our time.

This book is missing a chapter at the end. The "pirate" character took all of their toys, the kids follow her and find out she was giving them to charity. The end.No, I'm sorry but in the real world she should have been arrested. Stealing from the haves and giving to the have-nots is still illegal in this country. There are consequences to behavior. Justified theft is still theft.I'd have been alright with the book if they would have at least had a conversation about what happened at the end. It's really got me a bit riled up.
