Now this one may blow you mind. My son is autistic and the ONLY thing he wanted for his 18th BIRTHDAY is the Wheel of Fortune collectible cookbook. We have made a couple of recipes so far but I think his favorite is by far the smoothy. He was great, and he has a few different other recipes ready to go. So we are looking forward to trying all of the recipes.

I bought 1 for my daughter and 1 for myself. We both think they are great. I enjoyed just reading it and learning a little about the workings of producing the show. The recipes are really quite easy and I think many people would find some to try. It is just a fun cookbook to own. If you are a Wheel of Fortune fan you will really enjoy this book.

I enjoyed the book, it has common recipes with ingredients that you most likely already have in the cabinet at home. They are easy to read and instructions are clear. It has colorful photos of most of the recipes. And I love the stories about the Wheel of Fortune that the book details since I am a big fan of the show.

My Mother loved it. She is a HUGE fan of the show and when she heard a cookbook was out she hinted around that she would love to have one...so hint taken and gift given. She does not cook anymore but still loves to read the recipes. She said it is fun reading and some great recipes are in the book so a double plus. She will be 86 this year...

I bought two Wheel of Fortune Mr. Food cookbooks. One for myself and one for my granddaughter. We both agree that it our favorite cookbook ever. Love it.

I enjoyed reading the stories that accompany the recipes. Photos are good and directions are clear.

It really is collector's item with all the photos and stories from Pat and Vanna and many contestants. Most of the recipes are basic and easy to prepare.

Got this for my spouse's birthday as she is a Wheel fan. She loved it. I also started reading it and found the background stories about the show very informative.

Love this cookbook. Have tried 10 recipes so far and loved 9 of them. Plan to try many more. Recipes are very good and easy plus you learn about Wheel of Fortune.
