Customer Reviews

Fun book! Kids loved it! We used it as a fun homeschool supplement for world studies.

Get the whole set~they're all good reading...

Great 2nd grade and up kids book if learning about China

What better way to gain you students' interest in history than by sharing some cringe worthy facts.

Jacqueline Morley, wherever you are, my boys love your books. They never fail to get jaws to drop and spur on some chuckling. In You Wouldn't Want to Work on the Great Wall of China!: Defenses

You'd Rather Not Build, Morley combines facts, humor (e.g., "If the Emperor sends you on an impossible mission, it's best not to return"), and silly illustrations to really teach and entertain about the emperor, the terra cotta warriors, and all about the Great Wall. Great for older kids--not good for the youngers since there's a bunch of icky stuff talked about which is appropriate historically but not good for particular audiences (e.g., "Handy Hint: If you're desperately in debt, sell your children (daughters first) as slaves." and "Handy Hint: Only give birth to sons. A daughter will be a disappointment to your family.")
