Mari Schuh is the author of more than 150 nonfiction books for children, covering topics from tomatoes to tornadoes. She has written numerous articles for daily newspapers and has presented at the West Virginia Book Festival. Mari lives in Wisconsin with her husband, Joe, and their house rabbit, Kindle.

I am not happy with the size of the book. I was not expecting them to be so small. I bought these for use in my classroom and reading books this small in a group setting can prove difficult.

Pictures are great capturing an interest for how things grow. Recommend to teachers
