"For southeast Alaska . . . the bible remains Sarah Eppenbach's Alaska's Southeast." --The Seattle Times; "If an Alaska cruise is in your plans, the book to take along is Alaska's Southeast."

Use this guide as the definitive source for your Alaska travels and: view bald eagles, grizzly bears, and humpback whales in their natural habitats; learn how to "read" Native totem poles; hike the historic Chilkoot Trail; soak in natural hot springs; cruise Alaska's bay and fjords.

Not exactly what I wanted BUT still and good read on Alaska.

I actually read the review before I bought Alaska's Southeast. Now I know Touring the Inside Passage should be required reading for your journey to Alaska's Southeast. Read Sarah Eppenbach's book before you go and then take it with you. You'll get the most from those expensive excursions and you'll know where you are every beautiful mile!

A treasure trove. I leave on the ferries tomorrow and the book will be in my pocket the whole way. A thorough guide.
