101 Salvations: For The Love Of Dogs

Synopsis

Award-winning photographer Rachael Hale's 101 SALIVATIONS is a delightful collection of 101 dog portraits that will become a must-have for dog lovers everywhere. Rachael Hale's signature style catches the eye of everyone who comes across it. Featuring 101 color photographs of Chihuahuas, Great Danes, and everything in between, 101 SALIVATIONS presents dogs in all sorts of wonderful poses that bring out their most endearing characteristics. Rachael's secret to capturing a dog's soul is to focus on his eyes-whether they are wide and shining, or heavy-lidded, in the throes of slumber. Within this book we can see the soul of our own best buddies staring back at us. The book is peppered with humorous and touching quotations from well-known authors such as A.A. Milne and Fran Lebowitz. Following in the paw prints of 101 SALIVATIONS, Rachael Hale's 101 CATAclysms is a charming and playful tribute to the world's most popular pet. This collection features 101 images of magnificent felines. Hale's special rapport with animals has allowed her to capture the essence of her subjects. You will see it in the bald-faced cheekiness of Hilander, the sphinx; in the sassiness of Puffy, the Persian ball of fluff; and in the playfulness of Yabba Dabba Doo, the British shorthair. 101 CATAclysms also contains quotations from well-known personalities-such as James Herriot's "Cats are the connoisseurs of comfort"-that will tickle the reader as they peruse this gem of a book.

Anyone who loves dogs knows that they have their own unique personalities-they may be brave or timid, placid or hyper-but they're always soulful. In this collection of 101 arresting four-color portraits, Hale manages to capture the essential doggishness of her subjects, whether it's Hamish the Chihuahua's minuscule, quizzical face or the quiet intelligence of Loki, a Staffordshire bull terrier mix, sitting patiently with a kitten on his head. Though there are a few gratuitous props-a knitted cap on a Gordon setter, a pearl necklace on a Chinese Crested-the photographs don't descend into the realm of the kitschy and too-cute, partly because the dogs' expressive faces are the focus of the compositions. Hale tosses a few relevant quotes into the mix as well, e.g., Walt Whitman's "The dog is the god of frolic," and P.G. Wodehouse's "It is fatal to let any dog know that he is funny, for he immediately loses his head and starts hamming it up." The appendix, which gives a brief description of each dog's story, adds dimension to the photographs. We learn, for example, that Jabba, an eight-year-old pit bull, is just as shy as she looks. During the shoot, Hale says, she "ran terrified from the room...frightened by a fly." Copyright 2003 Reed Business Information, Inc.

Rachael Hale has won numerous awards for her animal portraiture. Since 1995 her images have been published on calendars, posters, greeting cards, and stationary in over 20 countries worldwide. She lives and works in Auckland, New Zealand, with her chocolate-brown Newfoundland named Henry.

Cute, clever book!

I've owned it for years - a must for dog lovers - fun and creative photos. Gave this one as a gift and it was totally appreciated.

Let me start by saying, I am an animal lover that enjoys taking pictures. This book is exquisite. The pictures really capture the heart of the animals within, no words are even needed. There are so many adorable pictures, I cannot even pick just one. This would make a great gift for a dog lover, and it would also make a great coffee table book.

I especially love the photo of Max on page 22. Masterful posing! She brings out the dogs character like few other photographers I have seen. I am a pet photographer myself and I am jealous of her ability to capture personality like she does. If you love pet photography as much as I do then get this book.

found a copy of this book at a thrift store, and showed it to a friend who loved it so much i bought her another from . it didnt hurt that she has 2 great danes and there was one on the cover. [and another inside.] the photos are beautiful . i love the little dachshund she found on the beach and the photo is adorable.

My sister bought me this book as a gift a few years back, and I love it! I recently had a friend who's 17 year old dog died, so I bought it for her to help the healing process. She (and her children) loved it. It helped them to smile when they needed it. This book makes a great gift, and a great "coffee table" book. Rachael Hale is very talented.

love love love this book...Rachael is a true talent.

Cute bookGreat for a coffee table or bathroom reading.
