Look ma, no textbooks! The Learn in Your Car series treats you like a child--in the best possible way--starting with one-word phrases ("please," "good-by"), counting exercises, and simple nouns ("bus," "train") designed to imitate a child's learning process. First you hear the words in English, then they are repeated slowly in clear, unaccented pronunciations. The method is extremely effective for those who don't know a thing, or for those who want to brush up by testing themselves when the English words are spoken. The tapes emphasize the building blocks of communicating in a foreign country rather than rote phrases that only apply on the tape and not in real-life exchanges. Level 1 painlessly covers basic verb forms, essential prepositions, near future and past tenses, as well as shopping, hotel reservations, and other travel-related situations. The series includes French, German, Italian, Russian, Japanese, and Spanish in three levels that can be purchased individually or in boxed sets. Each level contains two 90-minute cassettes (or CDs) and an accompanying booklet (not for use behind the wheel) with helpful explanations and scripts for the lessons. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Level Two is just what I was looking for: more vocabulary and different verb tenses to help with natural conversation. The only drawback is that the woman speaks a little too fast, but on the upside, that is helping me decipher the German sounds and is preparing me for real conversational situations. I just stop it and go back to listen again if I have problems with it.

the disc is not perfect; some damages

Wunderbar!

Nice. I've had experience with this brand and feel good about having the new one in German.

Learn in the car? When was the last time you saw a car with a tape player. Made the bad assumption these were CDs.

I downloaded the Audible version to play on my phone through Bluetooth in my car. I'm starting with level 2 because I already have a good vocabulary from school - just need work on my sentences. Every sentence is first given in English then twice in German with time in between to repeat. I'm enjoying it - I actually feel productive when I'm in the car now.
