I love this book, has many songs I know. I have bought other books only to find I knew few songs in them. There is a variety of ability levels so there is something for everyone. I have only been playing 6 months but found I could play many of them.

As an older adult learning the violin I have enjoyed working on pieces from this book. It has a nice variety of familiar music, both classical and more modern, and arrangements are at about a 2-3 year student level. There is a good mix of music that is enjoyable and challenging enough to improve skill.

Not as adult skill level as I expected.

Plenty of easy songs to play that are familiar to most people. You can entertain easily with this book.

ok

The tunes are somewhat on the easy side.

Lots of great songs for a beginner to play. Great song book!

Exactly what a beginner and intermediate player needs to stay interested in practicing.
