Airplanes Of World War I Coloring Book (Dover History Coloring Book)

Synopsis

One of the most colorful, innovative and deadly theaters of the Great War took place in the air. Before 1914 planes were toys for gentlemen-amateurs; by 1918 they had become precise, sophisticated machines. This book of 43 remarkable aircraft of World War I presents for coloring the most famous fighters, bombers, reconnaissance, sea planes and trainers of this crucial period in aeronautical development. Internationally known graphic artist Carlo Demand has rendered the planes for coloring in any medium, with captions describing each craft's design, history, and original coloring scheme (shown in full color for 14 planes on the covers). Color the Red Baron's Fokker Triplane, Rickenbacker's Nieuport, the Sopwith Camel, Spad S. XIII, German Albatros, American Curtis "Jenny," and 37 other accurately drawn airplanes in this vivid survey of the birth of military aeronautics.

Customer Reviews

Nicely done, though a couple of these WWI aircraft appear to be a bit out of proportion. Mostly well-done drawings for coloring. I have two other aircraft coloring books in this series, and they are nicely done, and I enjoy the coloring. I am a disabled firefighter, and veteran Air Force firefighter. I suffer from PTSD, and coloring is a therapy that is shown to help. I recommend it.

Superb, even for adults.

Loves it.

We homeschool and did a study on WW1. My son became fascinated by Baron von Richthoven aka the Red Baron. We watched the movie (highly recommend) and bought this coloring book. He has carefully colored in every plane with colored pencils according to the descriptions. I love that each plane also has a little information about it on each page. The pictures do have fine lines and small areas and so are not for young children. But my 11-yr-old LOVES it!

Great deal, came in on time.

just like the other book on of world war 2 planes , Great books love them!

My son has enjoyed this coloring book alot and it has opened an avenue to talk about history with him while we are coloring the aircraft.

just what I was looking for. prompt shipping. very pleased.
