Well, I can't really review this title because I don't have it. Seller had a mix up and I got another Hank title. But I have enjoyed pretty much every other Hank title I have so I'm betting this one is a hoot too. Love Hank and Drover and Slim and Rip n Snort and all the great characters that roam mr. Erikson's imagination. Hank's not just for kids, he's great for the whole family!

We love Hank. He's a little bossy around the ranch, and nothing happens unless he gives the OK. In "The Homeless Pooch" I was intrigued to learn his mother's family were Australian cowedogs - which explains Hank's personality. We have a blue heeler who runs things at our place. He's very loyal, loves and protects children, and is just a great all around working dog. He wants to be in on the action. The audio tape includes sound effects of Hank barking as a puppy. Very cute. In this story, Hank gets in trouble by chewing into his master's down blanket which is hanging on the line. When he smelled feathers inside the wet blanket, he assumed birds were hiding inside. Forced to leave home, he ends up at a sale barn where he meets his cowboy, Slim Chance.

Good wholesome entertainment! They will make you laugh and can safely be listened to by all age groups. My daughter is 9 and love it.

My kids and I enjoyed listening to the story of how he became Hank the Cowdog. Wonderful drawling voice and personalization of each character.

Love the story. The case was cracked in several places. The packing was not very protective.

Love Hank the Cowdog!

HAVE ALWAYS LOVED HANK--GREAT PRODUCT

We love Hank the Cowdog! Hilarious!
